VOLUNTEER APPLICATION FORM

"No journey in life is more difficult than the path followed by those suffering a life-threatening illness."

The Hospice Association of Ontario

Our volunteers come from a variety of backgrounds. What they all share is the experience of losing a loved one. Each is carefully screened to ensure that he/she possesses sensitivity, compassion, excellent communication skills and a desire to be of service to others. All volunteers complete an intensive 36 hour training program conducted by community professionals with a wide variety of skills and expertise.

Hospice Northwest is a member of The Canadian Palliative Care Association and Hospice Palliative Care Ontario. Hospice Northwest is a not-for-profit organization that is partially funded through the Local Health Integration Network and the United Way of Thunder Bay.

A Criminal Records Check will be requested prior to placement with a Hospice Northwest Client.
